Thai Enquirer News Summary

Political News

- Thai police have tightened security in sensitive areas after the assassination attempt on Donald Trump, while the atmosphere in front of the US Embassy in Bangkok remains normal.
  - ❖ Prime Minister Srettha Thavisin commented on the security measures concerning the Thai Prime Minister, stating that Thailand and the United States differ in terms of security systems. He believed that Thailand's security system is already adequate and he will leave it to the responsibility of the security agencies.

- ❖ Donald Trump was grazed by a bullet during an assassination attempt early Sunday morning (Bangkok Time). Reports suggests that 2 rally attendees and the suspect were killed, another 2 were injured.
- ❖ On Sunday, the Royal Thai Police said there had been no requests from the United States government, intelligence agencies, or the US Embassy in Thailand requesting increased security measures or special protection for any specific locations after the assassination attempt on Trump.
- ❖ However, Pol Lt Gen Thiti Saengsawang, commissioner of the Metropolitan Police, has ordered an increase in patrols in all sensitive areas of the capital and heightened security for buildings, despite receiving no special coordination requests or alerts from allied intelligence agencies.

- Yuthana Thaipakdee, the most senior (in age) new Senate member at 78 years old, will serve as the temporary chairperson for the meeting to select the Senate president.
  - ❖ Reports indicate that the Senate has nearly 140 votes. They have secured the majority vote and are preparing to appoint their members to all three positions.
  - ❖ Meanwhile, the new generation senators, will report to the Senate Secretariat today at 11:00 AM. They have Nantana Nantavaropas as the leader. Boonsong Noisophon will run for the president position.

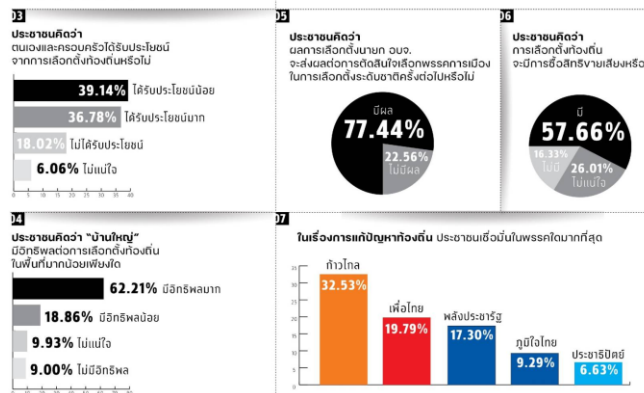

- Former Prime Minister Thaksin Shinawatra says that from August onwards the government will make decisive moves to help revive the economy.
  - ❖ He did not mention what changes will happen but it would be around the time that the government marks its 1st anniversary of governance.
- Yesterday, former Prime Minister Thaksin Shinawatra presided over a religious ceremony in honour of His Majesty King Maha Vajiralongkorn's 72nd birthday at Suwan Wichit Temple in Surin province. The event was attended by many Pheu Thai Party ministers and leaders.
  - ❖ In his speech, Thaksin mentioned that from August onwards, he would work for the benefit of all Thai people. He also commented on the election of the new Senate members, stating that the new Senate must have someone to manage it just like the previous Senate that had the military managing it. He also noted that the Senate election rules need to change to be more connected to the people.

- In response to reports that nationwide prison/correctional facilities are screening and evaluating lists of prisoners who may be eligible for royal pardons on Thailand's auspicious occasions, Sahakarn Petchnarin, Director-General of the Department of Corrections, stated that the royal pardon process must await the announcement of the royal decree, which falls under the responsibility of the Cabinet.
  - ❖ Regarding Thaksin's upcoming completion of his sentence term in August, Sahakarn said that once Thaksin completes the six-month suspension period, he will no longer need to report to the correctional facility.

- 39.14% of respondents in the latest Suan Dusit Poll believe that ‘big houses’ have a significant influence on the outcome of the Provincial Administrative Organization President elections.
  - ❖ According to the survey, which asked 1,188 eligible voters nationwide, 18.86% said the big houses have little influence, and the majority, 77.44%, believe that the results of these local elections affect their decision on which political party to choose in the next national election.
  - ❖ Additionally, 32.53% have the most confidence in the Move Forward Party for addressing local issues, followed by the Pheu Thai Party at 19.79%.

Economic News

- Today, the main committee on the digital wallet project, chaired by Prime Minister Srettha Thavisin, will discuss various details of the scheme and finalize conclusions. Prime Minister Srettha is expected to announce all details about the project on July 24.

- ❖ Julapun Amornvivat, Deputy Minister of Finance, revealed that the Budget Bureau and the Ministry of Finance have proposed managing the 450-billion-Baht allocation for the project instead of relying on funds from the Bank for Agriculture and Agricultural Cooperatives (BAAC).
- ❖ He said if the project uses less money than initially planned, the remaining funds will be allocated to other projects. Conversely, if more money is needed, careful budget management methods will be employed to cover the shortfall. Additionally, before the digital wallet measure is implemented in Q4/2024, further economic stimulus measures will be introduced.
- ❖ There will also be a meeting of the Economic Cabinet today to consider various economic stimulus measures, such as measures to stimulate the real estate sector and household debt relief measures. They will also follow up on the resolution of informal debt problems, with 143,000 individuals registered with the Ministry of Interior, amounting to a total debt of 10.261 billion Baht.
- The House of Representatives has scheduled a special debate on the government's proposed 122 billion Baht supplementary budget, to fund the digital wallet scheme, for this Wednesday. Government chief whip Wisut Chainaroon said that he is confident that the proposed supplementary budget will sail through the Lower House.
  - ❖ The debating time has been divided into five hours for opposition parties, three hours for government coalition MPs, two hours for cabinet ministers and one hour for the House Speaker or his deputy. Prime Minister Srettha Thavisin will join the debate for only a short time, as one of his deputies, Finance Minister Pichai Chuhavajira, will handle questions raised by opposition MPs.
  - ❖ After the debate, a House scrutiny committee will be appointed to review the supplementary budget for two days and return it to the House for its second and final readings, so disbursement of the 10,000 Baht benefit payments can begin in the fourth quarter of the year as scheduled, he added.

- Signing on a waiver extension that allows citizens of 93 nations to enter Thailand without a visa or obtain a visa on arrival and stay for up to 60 days will be conducted on Monday, Prime Minister Srettha Thavisin said.
  - ❖ He expects immigration and security agencies' measures to screen foreign arrivals will go smoothly in the long term. "Actually, we implemented measures last year as preparation of visa waivers for travellers from China, India and Kazakhstan," he said.
  - ❖ In a move to boost tourism and bring tourist dollars into the country, the Cabinet agreed on May 28 to waive visa measures for a total of 93 nations.
    - The 57 nations or regions that were already enjoying a visa waiver and can now get a 60-day stamp on arrival are: Canada, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Indonesia, Republic of Ireland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Kuwait, Latvia, Lichtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malaysia, Maldives, Mauritius, Monaco, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Oman, Philippines, Poland, Portugal, Qatar, San Marino, Singapore, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, South Africa, South Korea, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, Ukraine, United Arab Emirates, United Kingdom, United States, Peru, Hong Kong, Vietnam, Saudi Arabia, Andorra, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Bahrain, Brazil and Brunei.
    - The 13 nations whose citizens were already getting a 30-day stamp upon arrival and will now be getting a 60-day stamp: India, Kazakhstan, Malta, Mexico, Papua New Guinea, Romania, Uzbekistan, Taiwan, Bhutan, Bulgaria, Cyprus, Fiji and Georgia.
    - The six new nations or regions whose citizens now enjoy a visa waiver and a 60-day stay are: China, Laos, Macau, Mongolia, Russia and Cambodia.
    - The 17 new nations that are now eligible for visas on arrival and will get a 60-day stamp are: Guatemala, Jamaica, Jordan, Kosovo, Morocco, Panama,

Sri Lanka, Trinidad and Tobago, Tonga, Uruguay, Albania, Colombia, Croatia, Cuba, Dominica, Dominican Republic and Ecuador.

- CGS International (Thailand) Securities predicted that the assassination attempt on Donald Trump, the former President of the United States and Republican presidential candidate, will not affect the global stock market, the US stock market, or the Thai stock market. On the contrary, it is expected to increase Trump's popularity and could be beneficial for the US stock market, which is anticipated to gain positive factors from his policies.
  - ❖ For the Thai stock market today, movements will be influenced more by other factors, including the upcoming announcements of Q2/2024 financial results from banks and economic stimulus measures, particularly the digital wallet initiative.
- Energy Absolute Plc (EA) will announce its new board of directors at a press conference today ahead of the market opening at the Centara Grand Hotel at CentralPlaza Ladprao.

This shakeup follows yesterday's resignation of Somphote Ahunai, former CEO of EA, and Amorn Saphaweekul, former Deputy CEO of EA, from their positions on the board and as executives.

- ❖ Somphote and Amorn's resignations come amid accusations of wrongdoing. The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) of Thailand has charged them with violating securities laws and engaging in a 3.465 billion Baht fraudulent scheme related to equipment and software procurement for solar power plant projects in Nakhon Sawan and Lampang provinces.
- ❖ These developments have shaken investor confidence in EA, particularly regarding the company's financial health. Specifically, concerns surround the company's ability to pay for its six series of maturing bonds this year with a combined value of 6.9 billion Baht. The first redemption date is set for July 23. Additionally, EA plans to offer two new environmental conservation bonds, valued at up to over 20 billion Baht, with reservations opening July 23 to 25.

- Dhanarak Asset Development (DAD) Co Ltd, a state enterprise under the Ministry of Finance, is preparing to hire a financial advisory firm to study the management and valuation of the land where the Grand Hyatt Erawan Hotel is located at the Ratchaprasong intersection, covering an area of approximately 9 rai. The government has authorized The Syndicate of Thai Hotels and Tourists Enterprises Limited to manage the property and entered into a 30-year lease agreement with Erawan Hotel Plc, with annual rent adjustments every 10 years.
  - ❖ From the first 10 years (1991-2001), the annual rent was 7 million Baht, in the second period (2001-2011), the rent was 10.92 million Baht per year, and in the third period (2011-2021), the rent was 14.12 million Baht per year. Subsequently, the lease has been renewed on a year-to-year basis. This year, a conclusion is expected by the end of 2024.
  - ❖ The area is considered a prime location with the highest land prices in Thailand, at 3.75 million Baht per square wah, according to a survey by Agency for Real Estate Affairs (AREA).
